

Women Helping Women

Over a year and a half ago we placed an article in our newsletter asking for donation of fabric pieces to assist the women quilters at Hope Lutheran Church. The women wanted to make 16 new quilts for the women’s beds for the new women’s emergency shelter we will be constructing. The Hope Lutheran women obtained additional funding for batting and materials from their denomination. We recently received the completed, beautiful, prayed over quilts. The homeless women who come to our shelter are told the stories on how other faithful women have prayed for them, and have laid up resources for them even before they arrived at our door. Their hearts are deeply touched by such LOVE.

To the quilters, helpers, donors of materials and prayers, Thank You Hope Lutheran Church: Jamie Albert, Kat Snow, Nancy Brace, Sharolyn Gallagher, Jamie Siems, Connie Dernbach, Kathy Horman, Marilyn Pile, Jane Rusth, Milley Sedlock, Virginia Bower, Betty Bialorucki, Deborah Shaw, Jody Beake, Fran Beesley, Jutta Reise, Tracy Brunner, Tracy Schmediberg, Ruth Christensen, Lynette Dixon, Marlene Haddeland, Carolyn Jackson, Cheryl Kongslie, Jean Martin, Marilyn Mitchinton, Bernice Norro, Rita Olsen, Darlene Perry, Rosie Medford, Gladys Pozel, Paula Rushing, Karen Schneider, Linda Schoenberg, Alita Stark, Jayne Stundebeck, Lone Thompson, Mazie Wolfe, Lynne Carpenter, Tisha Powell, Ted Hamman & Pastor Lou Schneider.

Remember the Ministry

The ministry of the KFGM is a much needed service to low income and homeless people. In order for us to provide the hot showers, toiletries, meals, shelter, clothing and staff to assist the homeless in connecting to work and social services we need your support.

We only are able to provide our services, because of the faithful giving from our community. We rely upon God impressing on the hearts of His people the importance of keeping His light and life in the darkest of places. We trust Him in impressing upon your heart to continually pray for the poor and broken lives who come our way. We trust Him to continually impress upon your hearts the monetary and material needs we have for the ministry that do not stop during certain seasons of the year. Please choose to remember us in your giving through every season of the year.

As part of our stewardship we only maintain our current staffing level when we have the financial resources to do so. Last year our staff faced layoff and cutting of hours during the summer months. We take serious being faithful stewards of the resources given to us, and pray that God will bring increase to our partners in ministry.
